Primary Sources for the study of U.S. History

The Perspectives on History Series consists of 75 concise anthologies of excerpts from written documents, photos, cartoons, songs, poems, ads, maps, etc., from focused periods in American History. Each 60-68 page volume has an introduction from the editor, 16-30 primary source documents, a piece written by a teenager who lived at the time, and a list of suggested further reading.

Documents represent varying multicultural points of view from men, women, average citizens, military leaders, government officials, etc.

EDUCATION ABOUT ASIA

SUBSCRIBE FOR 1998 AND RECEIVE A FREE BONUS ISSUE!

In 1998 Education About Asia is publishing three issues per year (rather than two), without changing its subscription price. In other words, during the current year, all subscribers are receiving one totally free issue.

This innovative magazine has received high praise from scores of educators—from kindergarten through university—who have found it an exciting and highly practical teaching resource. Now in its third year, Education About Asia is designed specifically to be a tool for K-16 teachers who wish to bring information on Asia to their classrooms.

Now published in the Spring, Fall, and Winter, EAA will enhance your understanding of Asia—an area that now comprises 57% of the world's population—helping you to prepare your students for the world of the 21st century.

1998 Subscription Rates:

Individuals: U.S., $14.00/yr; Non-U.S., $18.00/yr.

Organizations: U.S., $20.00/yr; Non-U.S., $24.00/yr.

Special offer applies only to orders received in 1998

- Essays describing educational programs and techniques that have been tested in classrooms similar to your own
- Subjects ranging from ancient cultures and literatures to current events
- A guide to resources for classroom use—films, books, CD-ROMs, websites, software, and other educational tools
- Occasional thematic issues on topics of exceptional importance, such as Asian religions (Spring 1997), Asian geography (Spring 1998), and Asian history (Spring 1999)

... and much, much more!
